The Girl Guides Eight Point Programme

The eight point programme, adopted by Girl Guides throughout the world is an extension of the four signposts that Lord Baden-Powell gave to Scouting. Health, character, service and handcrafts.

It is a flexible system, not made up of separate, isolated activities, but a blending of ideas and interests which can be worked out in countless different ways. It helps a girl develop a lively mind, an alert outlook and a concern for those about her.

The pictures in this calendar show members of all sections of the movement throughout Australia participating in some aspect of this modern programme.
