ALL THE FUN OF THE FAIR

It was Visitors day yesterday and many people came along to see guides and scouts at camp. For most it was a brief walk around before enjoying a picnic lunch in one of the campsites. Before long, the crowds started to thin and it was time for the Twilight Fair.

There were many things to spend hard earned Jaffa dollars on at the fair. The Jaffas ran a "Penny Arcade" with darts, hookey, clowns and a "human fruit machine".

Activities offered by the Units include:

Unit 12 - Mini Golf
Unit 14 - Mini Olympics
Unit 13 - Sandcastle Building
Unit 11 - Bucking Bronco
Unit 7 - Hair Braiding

Today is "Bow at a First Aider" Day

Unit 6 - Woggles, Hat Decorations
Unit 3 - Wet Sponges, Tarp Bowls, Limbo
Unit 2 - Spinning Wheel
Unit 1 - Platypus, Kangaroo Woggles

After everyone had received their pies and enjoyed the sights of the carnival, it was time to gather at Peg's Place for a night of cultural entertainment.

The Indonesian Contingent last night put on a bright and colourful programme for the campers. There were samples of Indonesian food, colourful costumes and beautiful music. The leaders of Indonesia sang a song. The scouts and guides did a dance using their arms. Later on the boys sang and the girls did a dance using plates and candles.

Presentations were made to the Camp Chief, Alma Brand and the other contingent leaders. Finally, the whole camp danced as one because in the words of our Indonesian friends, "It is better to have good neighbours than distant relatives."

ABSEILING ADVENTURES

Abseiling out at Ship Rock has been running smoothly with about 99% of those attending actually jumping. Even some leaders have tried their hand at jumping off the rock (We've even given some a rope!) The cancellation of the first day's activities was due to the badly timed downpour which made the rock too slippery to abseil. We apologise to the two groups that missed out, but hope you can be slotted in later. A number of our international guests have come out and had a go. Some of our most challenging times being the non or little English speaking participants. It has been most enlightening seeing the mime and sign language skills of our instructors. We believe that quite a few guides and scouts have developed an interest in abseiling and leaders who have youth members may find the activity a popular one on this year's programme. Abseiling has to be one of the great equalizers and confidence building sports around. Worth considering?

POLICE BEAT WEDNESDAY 6TH JAN.

It has been one hectic day for J5 Police Department.

Today's arrests:

- Unlawful possession of a bicycle "Shirley".
- Theft of a crocodile: Brownie Cottage QM
- Cruelty to kids at Unit 4: K. Shelley
- Excessive use of toilet paper at camp 9 - Kanara

Kidnapping solved:

J5 Police made a dramatic rescue of Cassie the guide crocodile. Armed with a search warrant issued by Magistrate BRAND, the armed offenders squad raided Brownie Cottage. A search of the premises revealed Cassie tightly bound and gagged, concealed in the cooks bedroom. Whilst police scouters controlled the hostile crowd which had formed, the offender was sentenced to a public car washing on the next hot day.

A career criminal, Ken "Muggsy" Hiscock escaped lawful custody from Guide House (still manacled with handcuffs). He was located hiding in Brownie Cottage, the den of eniquity.

J5 police station has been issued with 4 killer goldfish to guard the police station fountain. Constables Flipper, Shark, Tunafish Salad and Jaws each equipped with sonar and video equipment are now stationed at J5 for the duration of camp.

JAM CAT ASSULTS JAFFA!

At about 3.30pm Wednesday, our unit Jaffa, Alison was assaulted by a brutal Jam Cat, Peter. He assaulted her after she rescued their Jam Cat from suffocation. The poor cat was wedged between a side window and car door. The Jaffa wanted to take the cat to a safe home (her sleeping bag) and report them to the RSPCA, but Peter decided to strangle her and put the poor cat back into the window. If you see the Jam Cats coming, lock your Jaffa's away and please try to rescue the Poor Jam Cat.
By Katie, Tanya and Bronwin, Unit 2.

ACTIVITIES

Indian Contingent leader, Mrs. Rajammal Ramamoorthy (Madam) spent her first full day in camp at Gilwell Park. After watching the girls in Unit 1 abseiling, canoeing and exercising their muscles and wit on the initiative course, she decided that the Gilwell Gauntlet was the place for a piece of the action herself. "Madam is climbing over the scramble net" said the guides. There she was sari and all, up and over the top. Madam then slid down the pole and wasn't at all phased by the large puddle at the bottom. Thus initiated into Guiding down under, she and her two girls are right at home in Unit 1. Madam is wondering if we ever have a hot season!

POST BOX

Post Box for Guides is the exchange of letters with a Guide in an overseas country.

The World Scout Link Scheme is also the exchange of letters with a boy or girl in an overseas country.

Visit Post Box in the BP Hut to have your card signed and printed with the Special Jamborella stamp. Today is your last opportunity to participate in this section of the Jamborella Award.

NOTICES

WANTED

First Aid would like to interview the guide who has been charged with assault and battery of a scout.

BEWARE

Unit 7 has a very quick spreading disease called Blaughatightis (Laugh-a-tightis) (Silent B) Beware as it has infected some of Unit 7 and will continue to infect others if not under control, it will seriously damage you for life. So BEWARE

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

Alana Johnson, Junior Leader. Sweet 16. Happy Birthday for 16 years of artistic talent.

CAMP CAPERS

At the cascading, someone saw one of the guides present coming down the river. She said, "Is he a boy or a girl?"

At the caving yesterday afternoon, one of our International campers asked Peter (Control) where "Mr. Five Minutes" was? When told that Ken was not coming she said, "You are Mr. Purposely then." Must be because of his driving.

Who was the well endowed Bus Driver who attempted grass skirt dancing last night? Rumor has it that they are going home to plant 2 paddocks to make Ken a grass skirt.

APOLOGY

In yesterday's Journal, an error was made in the spelling of Lenni Wright's name, It would have read Lennie Wright. We apologise for this error.

Michael from the rope bridge would appreciate it if people would stop accusing him of things he didn't do.

HELLO FROM THE ROC TENT
Yesterday kept us nicely busy - we saw several visitors - today we hope to be seeing lots of Scouts and Guides.

Thought for today as we enjoy this beautiful campsite.

If you stand very still in the heart of the wood
You will hear many wonderful things
The snap of a twig and the wind in the trees
And the whir of invisible wings.

Remember if you find us up behind the Police Sign drop in and say hello.

DID YOU KNOW TO JAMBORELLA 4 OR THE 16TH AUSTRALIAN JAMBOREEE?

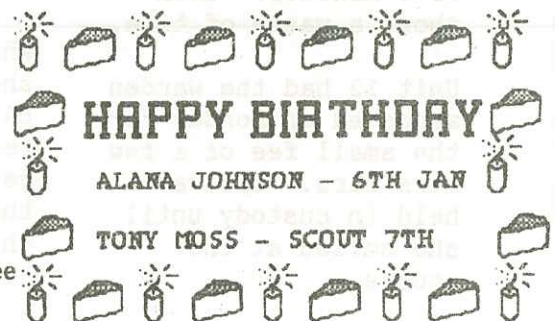

Videos are now available for viewing and purchase at the Frat Tent being staffed by members of the Trefoil Guild of Victoria and the Baden-Powell Guild of Victoria. Orders can be placed for the video in preparation about Jamborella Five

We are situated in the Giraffe House just opposite the police station. Come and see us and enjoy our hospitality. Tea, coffee and cool drinks are available FREE. Try our table tennis table, quoits, games of all sorts. Come and watch our videos or just relax and rest your feet. Jamborella souvenirs are available from us when the Guide shop is closed.

CAMP CAPERS

While most units were out there catching colds, Unit 9 (the legends) were out catching trout. The first trout caught was big. How big? Well it was 1 1/2 kilos and that is a lot of fish.

It was caught by Rebecca and she claims it was her first time fishing! If you have been fishing and you caught a big fish, drop us a line (hah hah). We are in Unit 9 (Bonham).
Cassie and Rebecca.

Have you seen the fish pond at the Police Station? It contains four fish named Duncan, Ian, Alan and Sue. Early this morning vandals decided to wash the fish in detergent. Anyone caught trying to catch the fish will be more than the fish they caught!

One of the Bike Riding Jaffas decided that she would go for a swim last night. She got the two Jaffa Pool Attendants down to the pool, dived in, screamed, turned blue and yelled, "Get my towel and thongs." She promptly got out and walked back again to Brownie Cottage, all in the space of five minutes. Talk about a waste of time.

Unit 12 had the warden arrested on Monday for the small fee of a few mars bars. She was held in custody until she smiled at the scouts.

Whilst looking for her bike, Jessie Handoll asked two girls sitting beside the track:
"Did you see a bike go past here?"
"Yes"
"Who was on it?"
"No-one."

Equipment Co-ordinator is in need of a lot of sleep. She got into Guide One last night and twice tried to start it with the ute key!

Who were seen floating in the spa with an Explosive sign firmly attached?

A comment at the dinner table - "Don't you think the goldfish would be much happier in a bigger pond (ie. leader's spa)

Did you know that there are fairies in Brownie Cottage? No! Just ask Cinderella.

Control person was talking to "Red Bear". Control person wondered why he didn't respond. When he looked, up, "Red Bear" was fast asleep in the chair.
(Too much Teddy Bear's Picnic.)

Who is that "Pink Person?"

Which young Guide decided she could get one of the BAC instructors over his fear of heights by getting him to abseil for the first time (so she thought).

Which acting Senior Sargent when offered a chance to abseil declined saying "Let the kids have a go."

A certain police officer yesterday required assistance from "Cinderella" (Brownie Cottage) to use the typewriter in Admin. Were there too many buttons Alan?

After making a visit to Brownie Cottage to collect an escaped prisoner, OIC left his police radio up there. Soon after a message came through to Control. "Help me I am lost." Control asked the person to identify themselves and the reply came back as "I'm a lost police radio."
What next, the police car?)

LITTER IN CAMP.

Scattered all around the campsite are little round tins. They are ever hungry and just love to be fed on ice cream wrappers, drink cans, chip packets, paper, Mars wrappers and all your other rubbish.

The amount of litter in the campsite is a constant problem. Please remember to put all your rubbish in the bin.
