WORLD CHIEF GUIDE'S VISIT TO VICTORIA

NOVEMBER, 1947

PRICE 1/-

IN 1938 the Girl Guides Association purchased a property about 45 miles from Melbourne, situated between Yarra Junction and Warburton, comprising 16 acres on which stood two houses. The larger house is now called "The Guide House" and the smaller is "The Brownie Cottage." Five camp sites are in constant use during the summer camping season and a concrete swimming pool about 75ft. by 20ft. is also much in demand during the hot weather. The Guide House with 25 beds and the Brownie Cottage with 9 beds are used throughout the year by Brownies, Guides, Rangers and Guiders. The houses and gardens are kept in order by "Working Bees", even the painting has been done by volunteers from the Guide Movement. Trees planted soon after we purchased the property are now well grown and make an attractive setting for the buildings. Although the Guide House was altered to make a room large enough for a combined Dining and Recreation Room, there is urgent need for more accommodation for recreation, especially in wet weather. It is hoped to use half of the £2000 subscribed by Victorian Guides to the Baden-Powell Memorial Fund to establish a Memorial to Our Founder at the Guide House. What more suitable form could it take than a Recreation Hall or Hut? (£1000 will be transferred to Imperial Headquarters, London, for the proposed Memorial in England.)

GUIDE AND SCOUT RALLY

SATURDAY, 22nd NOVEMBER, at 2.45 p.m., at the SHOWGROUNDS.
(By kind permission of the Royal Agricultural Society)

Between 9,000 and 10,000 Guides and Scouts, including Brownies and Cubs will take part.

PROGRAMME.

1. MARCH PAST.

All ranks will enter the arena to march past the Chief Guide, who will take the salute from the Official Dais. It is estimated that this will take approximately one hour.

The March Past will be led by three colour parties carrying The Guide World Flag, The Union Jack and The Australian Flag. Then will follow Girl Guides, Boy Scouts, Brownies and Cubs and Salvation Army Guards.

2. THE NATIONAL ANTHEM.

Guides and Scouts will come to the Salute and all present are asked to join in the singing.

3. FORMATION OF THE UNION JACK by 3,000 Guides and Scouts.
Brownies will form the pole of the flag.

4. THE WORLD CHIEF GUIDE will address the assembly.

5. SINGING GAMES BY BROWNIES.

The Brownies will give their Grand Howl in honour of the Chief Guide.

WORDS OF BROWNIE SINGING GAMES.

BLACKBIRD.

Blackbird, Blackbird, hop with me
Through the branches of this tree,
Then we'll sit on the topmost branch
And sing, while the bright leaves gaily dance.

THE BIG SHIP.

The Big Ship sails down the illey
alley oh,
The illey alley oh, the illey alley oh,
The Big Ship sails down the illey
alley oh.
On the fifteenth of November.

—Traditional.

JOCK McCUDDY.

Hey, Jock McCuddy,
My cuddy is ower the dyke;
And if ye meddle my cuddy
My cuddy will gie ye a bite.

—Traditional.

Mrs. Radford, Piano-accordionist.

6. DISPLAY BY WOLF CUBS.

3000 Wolf Cubs will pay homage to The Lady Baden-Powell in an Aboriginal Corroboree concluding with the Grand Howl, the Cubs' highest tribute to an honoured guest.

7. FOOD FOR BRITAIN PAGEANT by Guides and Scouts.

Guides will form the map of Australia and Scouts the map of England.

Food parcels which have been brought by Companies and Troops, addressed and ready for despatch will, in pageant, be brought to Capital Cities in "Australia". "Ships", manned by Sea Rangers and Sea Scouts will call at ports, collect parcels and transport them to "England".

At the conclusion of this Pageant these parcels will be officially received by The Lady Baden-Powell on behalf of the Guides and Scouts of Britain.

8. RUSH RALLY OF GUIDES AND SCOUTS.

Convener: Jean Brown.

Bands: Victorian Police Band.

Victorian Pipe Band.

Commentator: Mr. Molineux.

ROBERT BADEN - POWELL

THE FOUNDER.

IN 1941 Guides mourned the death of the Founder at his home in Africa. With the Scouts, a Memorial Service was held. Victoria has sent £1,000 to the International Memorial Fund and plans to build a Recreation Room at the Guide House to keep fresh the memory of Baden-Powell for future generations.

Among the papers of Lord Baden-Powell a last message to Girl Guides was found . . . "By giving out love and happiness you will gain love in return, and there is nothing better in this world. You will find that Heaven is not the kind of happiness somewhere up in the skies and after you are dead, but right here and now in this world, in your own home. So guide others to happiness and you will bring happiness to yourselves and by doing this you will be doing what God wants of you.

God be with you."

BADEN-POWELL.

THE LADY BADEN-POWELL, G.B.E.

THE WORLD CHIEF GUIDE

THE Chief Guide has visited Australia twice before, with the Chief Scout in 1931, when she brought a flag from the Cenotaph in Whitehall, given by the British Government into the keeping of the Guides in Australia; and in 1935 when both the Chiefs came to the International Scout Jamboree at Frankston, to celebrate the Centenary of Victoria. Both Visits were the occasions for large rallies of Scouts and Guides and for enthusiastic demonstrations of affection and admiration.

The Standard of The Lady Baden-Powell, Chief Guide of the World, is azure (blue) from hoist to fly. Nearest the hoist is the or (gold) trefoil; then come two small hemispheres, showing a coloured map of the world, indicating her post as Chief Guide. These are placed high to the left of the main fly, which is divided throughout its length by two silver waves, amongst which are shown three ships with black hulls and white sails, four silver dolphins, and the Gold Fish of the Chief Guide. Then between two red gules (motto bands) on which are embroidered the Baden-Powell and Girl Guide Mottoes in gold letters, there is a section alluding to the out-door life, showing white tents on a vert (green) field. In the extreme fly the Baden-Powell crests are embroidered.

HISTORY OF THE GIRL GUIDES OF VICTORIA

THE BEGINNING.

At a rally of Boy Scouts in England in 1909 a group of girls spoke to Sir Robert Baden-Powell, and claimed that they had proved their right to be allowed to join the Movement he had started. Their earnestness so impressed the "Chief" that he suggested that a similar Movement be started for girls; they might be called Girl Guides, and so it came about.

LADY CHAUVEL, State Commissioner.

Camping is one of the central activities of Girl Guides. Friends have been generous in allowing the use of their property, but since the Association has owned sites, the number of camps has increased. Two sites, "Gipton" near Frankston, and "Mt. Moreton" have been presented by the owners.

The Guide House was bought by the Association in 1938.

War was declared a few days before the opening of a "Walkabout" Exhibition, planned to last a week in the Melbourne Town Hall, to secure revenue for overhead expenses of the Guide House. The proceeds, over £1200, were diverted to war relief funds; one-third to Red Cross, two-thirds to Guide War Appeal. In less than four years the Guide Appeal raised £12,793 and provided 97,775 woollen garments for the Children of Britain and the men of trawlers and minesweepers. 2,000 additional garments were provided for evacuees from Malaya. Friends who were expert in every department prepared the garments, packed and despatched them. In 1943, when export of woollen goods was prohibited, £2,000 remaining in the fund was used for the benefit of the children of seamen. Apart from the central appeal, Guides helped local war efforts in many capacities. They collected rags for cleaning aeroplanes, books for invalids, collected and sorted clothes for Europe and food for Britain, they acted as messengers and casualties for A.R.P. practices, and Rangers spent holidays in landwork camps; they subscribed to funds for an Air Ambulance and for a Life Boat. The Life Boat, though not quite finished, took part in the evacuation of Dunkirk and is named "The Guide of Dunkirk."

During 1910 at least two groups of girls in Victoria were training themselves in Scoutcraft and the Law. One was at Powelltown, one in Hawthorn. A few girls attended a rally when the Chief Scout visited Melbourne in the course of a world wide tour in 1912, just before his marriage.

When Lord Stradbroke was appointed Governor of Victoria, Lady Stradbroke, who had been a Commissioner in Suffolk, was asked to be Commissioner for the State.

At the first Victorian rally in December, 1922, 300 Guides gave a demonstration.

Girls in country districts eagerly took up the idea of Lones. The Extension Branch, for girls with some physical disability, began in 1927 with a Brownie Pack at the Royal Victorian Institute for the Blind.

When the visitors returned to England the appointment of Miss S. Irving as State Secretary marked the climax and the conclusion of the pioneering years.

The Guide Movement grew steadily and through prosperity and depression, through peace and war, has become recognised as a strong influence in the community.

In 1925 the proceeds from a rally and fete at Government House founded a capital fund to provide revenue for Headquarters, and the Association was soon in a position to establish an office in the city.

Lady Stradbroke was succeeded in 1926 by The Lady Somers, now Chief Commissioner, Imperial Headquarters, and in 1934 by Lady Chauvel who still holds office.

Two Victorians holding the Training Diploma were able to be of service to India; Miss Haymen spent a year in different parts of the country and Miss Purnell made a long visit to Hyderabad State.

GUIDE INTERNATIONAL SERVICE.

Since 1943 Australia has co-operated in the Guide International Service, foreshadowed in Britain from the outbreak of war. The Service is planned to train and equip adult Guide teams for relief work in Europe, and particularly to make contact with Guides of occupied countries. A fund was raised and volunteers enlisted. Dr. Meredith Ross travelled to England and became Leader of one of the teams that was prepared before D-Day to leave at a moment's notice. Three other volunteers went a little later to Europe; an All Australian team led by Miss Haymen, worked in Malaya for several months; seven Australian candidates have passed a strenuous test recently, and one from Victoria has already arrived in Europe.

Companies and Packs have sent supplies of food, clothing, soap and handcraft materials to the teams; food parcels to Companies and Packs in Britain have formed many pen friendships. A gift has been sent to the Guides of Malta, G.C., to help them to rebuild their shattered home.

The activity of the war years was intense, but a drop in numbers was inevitable; Guiders enlisted, did the work of men on the land or were working overtime; blackout and general uncertainty of life made meeting difficult: the census of 1945 recorded a membership of 8225.

PEACE.

The Guides are prepared for progress in the days of Peace, but help in every capacity is needed if every girl who wishes it is to have the opportunity to be a Guide or Brownie.

The principal recent events have been:—

State Rally reviewed by H.R.H. The Duchess of Gloucester, at the invitation of the State President, Lady Dugan; Appointment of a Commissioner to travel through the State and help to re-organise Companies that have lapsed or districts that are short-handed; Closer contact with other Organisations, especially through the National Fitness Council and Associated Youth Committee; Opening of Square Centre in South Melbourne—a Community Centre organised by Guiders on the Guide and Scout principles, for boys and girls who have not joined the Movements; Award of Chief's Diploma to Miss Bush—Miss Bush is devoting her time to organising training; she has been succeeded as State Secretary by Mrs. Hall, then Miss M. Burns; Gymkhana, which realised £1,400 for Guide House and Development Funds; Visit of Miss Cobham, Guider-in-Charge at Princess Mary Training Centre, Foxlease England, to spend a year in Australia; Despatch of ingredients for wedding cake of H.R.H. The Princess Elizabeth, Chief Ranger; Visit of the Chief Guide.

The Lady Baden-Powell is Chief Guide in a very special sense to the Guides of every British country, but through her we feel most deeply our bond with the Guides of every Country in the World.

Miss M. McL. BURNS, State Secretary.

SCOUTING IN VICTORIA

LORD ROWALLAN, Chief Scout.

The influence of that great International Scout gathering had a marked effect on the Movement for it enabled many leaders who attended not only to see something of the greatness of Scouting but also to attend Gilwell Training Courses held at Gilwell Park, Chingford, England, the home of Scout training.

As the direct result of their attendance Gilwell Training was brought to Victoria and a Training Camp for Scout Leaders was established at Gilwell Park, Gembrook.

The re-organization of the Association in this State early in 1924 also had beneficial effects and since that year Scouting has continued to flourish.

In 1934-35 the first International Jamboree held in the Southern Hemisphere was organized by this Branch and 10,000 Scouts gathered together in the great camp at Frankston. In the presence of our late Founder and The Lady Baden-Powell that function was opened on 29th December, 1934.

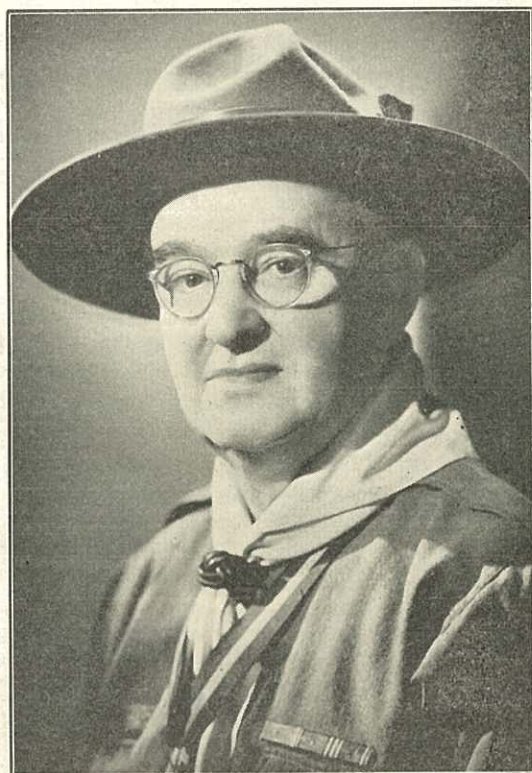

FROM a small acorn has grown a mighty tree; for the seed the Founder of the Scout Movement planted nearly forty years ago has spread to practically every country in the world.

Though originally intended for the use and training of the boys of the United Kingdom, so strong was the appeal of Scouting that wherever boys got the first copies of the first edition of "Scouting for Boys" they were immediately inspired to become Scouts.

The boys of Victoria were no exception and so, when the first copies of that book came to Victoria in 1908, they seized upon it as a great game that captured their imagination.

From that day Scouting steadily progressed in this State and even the impact of the First World War failed to stay the growth of the Movement. With the end of that war and the return of many of its leaders from active service great progress was made.

Then came the International Jamboree in 1924 to which Victoria sent a large contingent of Scouts.

Mr. G. W. S. ANDERSON, Chief Commissioner.

It undoubtedly gave a great impetus to Scouting in this State which increased in strength as the result of the public interest thus aroused.

The Second World War proved a thorough test as to the soundness of the Movement, when such a large number of Scout leaders and potential leaders joined up with the various Services.

However, in spite of the great difficulties thus created Scouting carried on and was able to make a valuable contribution to the war effort whenever called upon to do so.

With the cessation of hostilities plans were at once brought forward for the extension of Scouting activities, the success of which depends largely on the manpower available to give the necessary time and leadership to the thousands of boys who desire to become Scouts.

And so Scouting in Victoria is a healthy branch of that great tree that has grown out of the seed planted by the Late Lord Baden-Powell away back in 1908.

Over 17,000 Victorian Scouts in 350 Groups are a testimony to the soundness of the soil in which that seed was planted.

Mr. F. SANDERS, General Secretary.

THE GUIDE AND SCOUT PROMISE.

I promise on my honour that I will do my best to do my duty to God and the King, to help other people at all times and to obey the Guide (Scout) Law.

THE GUIDE AND SCOUT LAW.

1. A Guide's honour is to be trusted.
2. A Guide is Loyal.
2. A Guide's duty is to be useful and to help others.
4. A Guide is a friend to all.
5. A Guide is courteous.
6. A Guide is a friend to animals.
7. A Guide obeys orders.
8. A Guide is thrifty.
9. A Guide smiles and sings under all difficulties.
10. A Guide is pure in thought, word and deed.

GUIDES OWN SERVICE

23rd NOVEMBER, 1947, at 3 p.m.

AT THE INDEPENDENT CHURCH, CR. COLLINS AND RUSSELL STREETS, MELBOURNE

Colours will assemble on the eastern side of the Church, near the Church Hall. No escorts will be required.

Companies will enter the Church and take their seats as they arrive.

(Owing to shortage of seating accommodation, only Guiders, Guides and Rangers in Uniform can be admitted to this service.)

ORDER OF SERVICE.

NATIONAL ANTHEM.

THE GUIDE HYMN:

Heroes in days of old, for Honour's cause enrolled
Valiantly dared!
Still our illumined eyes, wait God's in glad surprise,
His voice peals forth "Arise!"
"Guides, Be Prepared."

Conquering yourselves, be strong, march forth to right the wrong,
Comradeship shared!
Holy your glorious aim, quenchless your spirit's flame,
Seek no more earthly fame,
God's way prepared.

Lord, at Thy loving side, teach every faltering Guide
None can be spared!
Guard Thou our honour bright, nerve each faint heart to fight,
Loyal to Thee and right.
Keep us prepared.

In our blest Company, lift up all hearts to see
Thy will declared.
Till the great race be won—till the full task be done—
Till the last height be won—
Guides, Be Prepared.

Amen.

CALL TO RE-DEDICATION.

Leader: "Guides, Rangers and Guiders, we are come together this afternoon to worship God and to re-dedicate our lives to His Service, remembering that at our enrolment each of us promised our loyalty to Him and to our fellow-man. Let us join together in a prayer of dedication:

Prayer: "O Lord God, help us to remember through all the years ahead that we are specially dedicated to Thy Service, and that each of us has pledged herself to follow Thee. Grant that in the Guide Movement we may learn the joy of service for others, the satisfaction of work faithfully performed and the courage to make high endeavour to Thy Cause. May the knowledge of the Promise we have taken bring us strength when strength is needed and comfort in time of trouble, that we may be the more fitted to help those around us. We did not give this Promise meanly for a day or a week or a year, but gladly and proudly to hold for all our lives. Help us to remember this in our homes as well as at our Guide meetings, at school as well as when we are alone; and that the smallest unrewarded Good Deed may be the greatest in Thy sight. O Lord, Thou knowest how our feet may stumble, and so though we may only wear Guide uniform for a year or two, help us through our future lives to keep to Thy paths and to obey Thy Laws. We have promised to do our best, but without Thee we are weak; lead Thou us on." Amen.

Leader: Let us thank God for the joys of life:

Prayer: Creator of life and light

(Leader) We bless Thee this day for the beauty of Thy World,
For sunshine and flowers, storm-cloud and starry night.
For the first radiance of dawn and the last smouldering glow of the sunset.
We Thank Thee for physical joy.
For the ecstasy of swift motion,
For deep water to swim in.
For the goodly smell of rain on dry ground.
For hills to climb, and hard work to do,
For all skill of hand and eye,
For music that lifts our hearts in one breath to heaven,
For the handgrasp of a friend,
For the gracious loveliness of children.
For all these Thy sacraments of beauty and joy
We thank Thee, our Lord and our God.

Prayer: The Lord's Prayer.

(All)

Leader: Reading—John 4:46-53 (Moffatt's translation.)

Hymn:	He who would valiant be 'Gainst all disaster, Let him in constancy Follow the Master. There's no discouragement Shall make him once relent His first avowed intent To be a pilgrim.	Who so beset him round With dismal stories But do themselves confound— His strength the more is. No foes shall stay his might, Though he with giants fight, He will make good his right To be a pilgrim.
-------	--	---

Since, Lord, Thou dost defend
Us with Thy Spirit,
We know we at the end
Shall life inherit.
Then fancies flee away!
I'll fear not what men say,
I'll labour night and day
To be a pilgrim.

ADDRESS

by

MISS EDITH PURNELL.

Hymn:

Thou didst leave Thy throne and Thy kingly crown When Thou camest to earth for me; But in Bethlehem's home was there found no room For Thy holy nativity.	The foxes found rest, and the birds had their nest In the shade of the cedar tree; But Thy couch was the sod, O Thou Son of God, In the deserts of Galilee.

O come to my heart, Lord Jesus;
There is room in my heart for Thee.

Thou camest O Lord, with the living word
That should set Thy people free;
But with mocking scorn, and with crown of thorn
They bore Thee to Calvary.

Heaven's arches rang when the Angels sang,
Proclaiming Thy royal degree;
But in lowly birth didst Thou come to earth,
And in great humility.

When heaven's arches shall ring, and her choirs shall sing
At Thy coming to victory,
Let Thy voice call me home, saying, Yet there is room,
There is room at My side for thee. Amen.

CHIEF GUIDE'S MESSAGE.

LITANY OF FELLOWSHIP.

Leader: We who are young, let us pray for the youth of the world; for the children of all nations whose lives have been shadowed by the fears and privations of war.

Response: We pray for them, Lord Jesus.

Leader: Let them only remember childish joys and childish pastimes; games and the laughter of friends; sunshine and happiness; and the deep security of parents' love.

Response: These things let them remember, Lord.

Leader: May their waking and sleeping hours be fresh and untroubled as a child's should be, secure from want and sheltered from anxiety.

Response: Dear Christ, Who so loved the children of this world, watch over them.

Leader: Especially, Lord, look with Grace upon our sister Guides in other countries; help them to stand fast to their Promise and their Laws, and to be worthy of their dedication to Thy service. Give them the courage and faith to build the future with eager hands.

Response: We, their sisters, pray for them.

Leader: Long years ago You said: "Love one another." We have remembered. After the years of war and bitterness between nations, we children ask You to guard and keep those other children in Europe who have suffered and been frightened, and perhaps strayed far from the Lighted Path You showed us all.

Response: We ask this in the name of Love. Amen.

THE GUIDE PRAYER.

Almighty and Everlasting God, by whose grace Thy servants are enabled to fight the good fight of faith, and ever prove victorious; we humbly beseech Thee so to inspire us Guides, that we may yield our hearts to Thine obedience and exercise our wills on Thy behalf. Help us to think wisely, to speak rightly, to resolve bravely, to act kindly, to live purely. Bless us in body and in soul, and make us a blessing to our comrades. Whether at home or abroad may we ever seek the extension of Thy kingdom. Let the assurance of Thy presence save us from sinning: strengthen us in life, and comfort us in death. O Lord, our God, accept this prayer, for Jesus Christ's sake. Amen.

Hymn:	O Jesus I have promised To serve Thee to the end; Be Thou forever near me My Master and my Friend; I shall not fear the battle If Thou art by my side, Nor wander from the pathway If Thou wilt be my Guide.	O let me hear Thee speaking In accents clear and still Above the storms of passion, The murmurs of self-will; O speak to reassure me To hasten or control; O speak and make me listen. Thou Guardian of my soul.

O let me feel Thee near me; The world is ever near; I see the sights that dazzle, The tempting sounds I hear; My foes are ever near me, Around me and within; But, Jesus, draw Thou nearer, And shield my soul from sin.	O Jesus Thou hast promised To all who follow Thee That where Thou art in glory There shall Thy servant be; And, Jesus I have promised To serve Thee to the end; O give me grace to follow My Master and my Friend.
---	---

O let me see Thy footmarks
And in them plant mine own;
My hope to follow duly
Is in Thy strength alone;
O guide me, call me, draw me
Uphold me to the end;
And then in Heaven receive me,
My Saviour and my Friend. Amen.

Prayer: O Lord God, when Thou givest to Thy servants to endeavour any great matter, grant us to know that it is not the beginning but the continuing of the same until it be thoroughly finished which yieldeth the true glory; through Him that for the finishing of Thy work laid down His life.

The Grace of Our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us and remain with us always. Amen.

Convener: Ann F. Rylah.

LET'S TALK ABOUT SAVING

Saving isn't just a duty for your next door neighbour to perform.

It isn't just a talking point for economists.

It isn't something you can put off till to-morrow.

SAVING IS URGENT.

It isn't only planning for the future, it calls for present action.

Make up your mind to-day to save—and do it! Pay an amount into your savings account—you need not wait until you can make a large deposit—save something to-day—make your bank balance grow.

"Good luck," says Emerson, "is only another name for tenacity of purpose."

Keep on Saving: It's Lucky.
